This block contains six staves of music, each labeled 'Fl.' on the left. The staves are arranged vertically. Above the first staff is the number '21'. Each staff contains ten measures of music, represented by horizontal lines with short horizontal dashes indicating notes. The notes are positioned on the same line in every measure across all staves, suggesting a unison or octavized part.

This image shows a musical score for six flutes (Fl.) across six staves. The score begins at measure 63, indicated by a small number above the first staff. Each staff contains 10 measures of music, for a total of 60 measures. The notation is minimalist, consisting of horizontal lines on a five-line staff with a treble clef at the beginning of each staff. The notes are represented by short horizontal dashes on the lines, suggesting a specific melodic or rhythmic pattern. The staves are arranged vertically, with the first staff at the top and the sixth at the bottom.
