There's a shop down the street, where they sell plas-tic rings, for a quar-

- ter a piece, I swear it. Yeah, I know that it's cheap, not like gold in your dreams, but I hope that you'll still wear it. Yeah, the ink may stain my skin, and my jeans may all be rip - ped. I'm not per - fect, but I swear, I'm per-fect for you.

16

21

And there's no gua-ran-tee, that this will be ea - sy. It's not a mi - ra - cle you ne - ed, be-lie - ve me. Yeah, I'm no an - gel, I'm just me, but I will love you end - less-ly. Wings aren't what you ne - ed, you ne-

26

31

36

- ed me.

41

There's a house on the hill, with a view of the town, and I know how you a - dore

45

it. So I'll work e - very day, through the sun, and the rain, un-til I can af-ford

49

it. Yeah, your friends may think I'm cra - zy, 'cause they can on - ly see,

53

I'm not per - fect, but I swear, I'm per - fect for you. And 58

there's no gua-ran-tee, that this will be ea - sy. It's not a mi - ra - cle you ne-

63

- ed, be-lie - ve me. Yeah, I'm no an - gel, I'm just me, but I will love you end - less - ly. Wings aren't what you ne - ed, you ne -

68

72

- ed me. (You ne - ed me, I know you need me, you ne - ed me,

77

I know you need me, you ne - ed me, I know you need me, you ne - ed me,

81

I know you need me.) Ink may stain my skin, and my jeans may all be rip - ped, I'm not per -

86

- fect, but I swear, I'm per-fect for you. And there's no gua-ran-tee,
