

THE LOST FORGOTTEN WORLD

Music by ROBERT FERGUSON

"In another dimension, there exist a world where many things, not all, are possible. Extra terrestrial technology, ancient Earth civilizations, primitive people, intelligent animals, and long ago extinct plants and animals from this world and others. Together, in an explosive mix of high adventure and discovery, the new comers, young man and woman, just hanging by a string, find their niche in a deadly and awesome long ago forgotten world."
