

Everlasting Love

Words by Charles Wesley (1742)

Music by D. J. Duncan

Piano

1. Ter - rib - le God, Se - vere - ly just, In - ex - or - 'ble judge
 4. I might have seen in that my day The things be - long - ing
 11. But is it poss - i - ble that I Re - morse or hope a - 12. If yet a - gain my Lord re - turns, And will not with his 13. If af - ter all waste of love, (E - nough ten - thous - and
 15. Since first with A - dam's sons he strove To bring th' lost sheep
 16. Then save me for thy mer - cy's sake, And give, O' give me

Pno.

of all, A sin - ner cling - ing to the dust, And look - ing to my peace. But would not let thy Spir - it stay, But forced his gain should know? If mer - cy's foun - tain is not dry, To me its purch - ase part, If o - ver me his Spir - it mourns, And works up - worlds to save) I still am called his grace to prove, And may in - back to God, The Spir - it of thy grace and love, Nev - er, no to thy Son. That I to all man - king may make The rich - es

Pno.

for a deep - er fall.
 striv - ing love to cease.
 streams e - ter - nal flow;
 on my ston - y heart,
 him re - demp - tion have.
 nev - er yet sub - dued
 of thy mer - cy known.

Thy aw - ful jus - tice I con - fess,
 I forced him to with - draw his light,
 If grace to me doth still a - bound,
 None out of hell need now des - pair,
 Sin - ners ye all must with me own,
 A more re - bell - ious worm than me,
 Thy ev - er - last - ing love pro - claim,

9

Pno.

And glor - i - fy Thy right - eous - ness.
 And take his ev - er - last - ing flight.
 Then Ju - das might have par - don found.
 A vi - ler dev - il is not there!
 The day of grace and life is one.
 or gained a hard - er vic - tor - y.
 And grace for all in Je - su's name!